A HELPING HAND THIS HOLIDAY SEASON: Winters Bros. Waste Systems and Winters Center for Autism contributed 150 turkeys to the Gerald J. Ryan Outreach Center, to be distributed to those experiencing hardship this holiday season. The Gerald J. Ryan Outreach Center's food pantry provides emergency food assistance to those in need in the Wyandanch area and neighboring communities. The pantry is one of the largest food pantries of its kind on Long Island, providing assistance to an average of 15,000 men, women, and children annually.

Winter walking tour explores historic village...

The Ward Melville Heritage Organization (WMHO) presents a new seasonal walking tour – “Winter Walks Through Time.” Participants will enjoy stories about Stony Brook Village and its former residents, including the history of winter whaling on Long Island, how Dorothy Melville saved Christmas, the design of Stony Brook Village by Ward Melville and Richard Haviland Smyth, and the history and magic of holiday window displays. Tours will leave from the Stony Brook Post Office on Friday, December 10 at 10:50 a.m. and 2:50 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person and includes hot chocolate from Stony Brook Chocolate. Reservations are required. To learn more about the Winter Walks Through Time and to reserve your tickets, call the Ward Melville Heritage Organization at 631-751-2244.
